The Senior class was inspired by this poem, and we would like to pass it on as a remembrance of the class of '70.

I have died in Viet Nam
But I have walked the face of the moon.

I have befouled the waters and tainted the air of a magnificent land. But I have made it safe from disease.

I have flown through the sky faster than the sun. But I have idled in streets made ugly with traffic.

I have littered the land with garbage. But I have built upon it a hundred million homes.

I have divided schools with my prejudice. But I have sent armies to unite them.

I have beat down my enemies with clubs. But I have built courtrooms to keep them free.

I have built a bomb to destroy the world. But I have used it to light a light.

I have outraged my brothers in the alleys of the Ghettos. But I have transplanted a human heart.

I have scribbled out filth and pornography. But I have elevated the philosophy of man.

I have watched children starve from my golden towers. But I have fed half of the earth.

I was raised in a grotesque slum. But I am surfeited by the silver spoon of opulence.

I live in the greatest country in the world in the greatest time in history. But I scorn the ground I stand upon.

I am ashamed.
But I am proud.
I am an American.

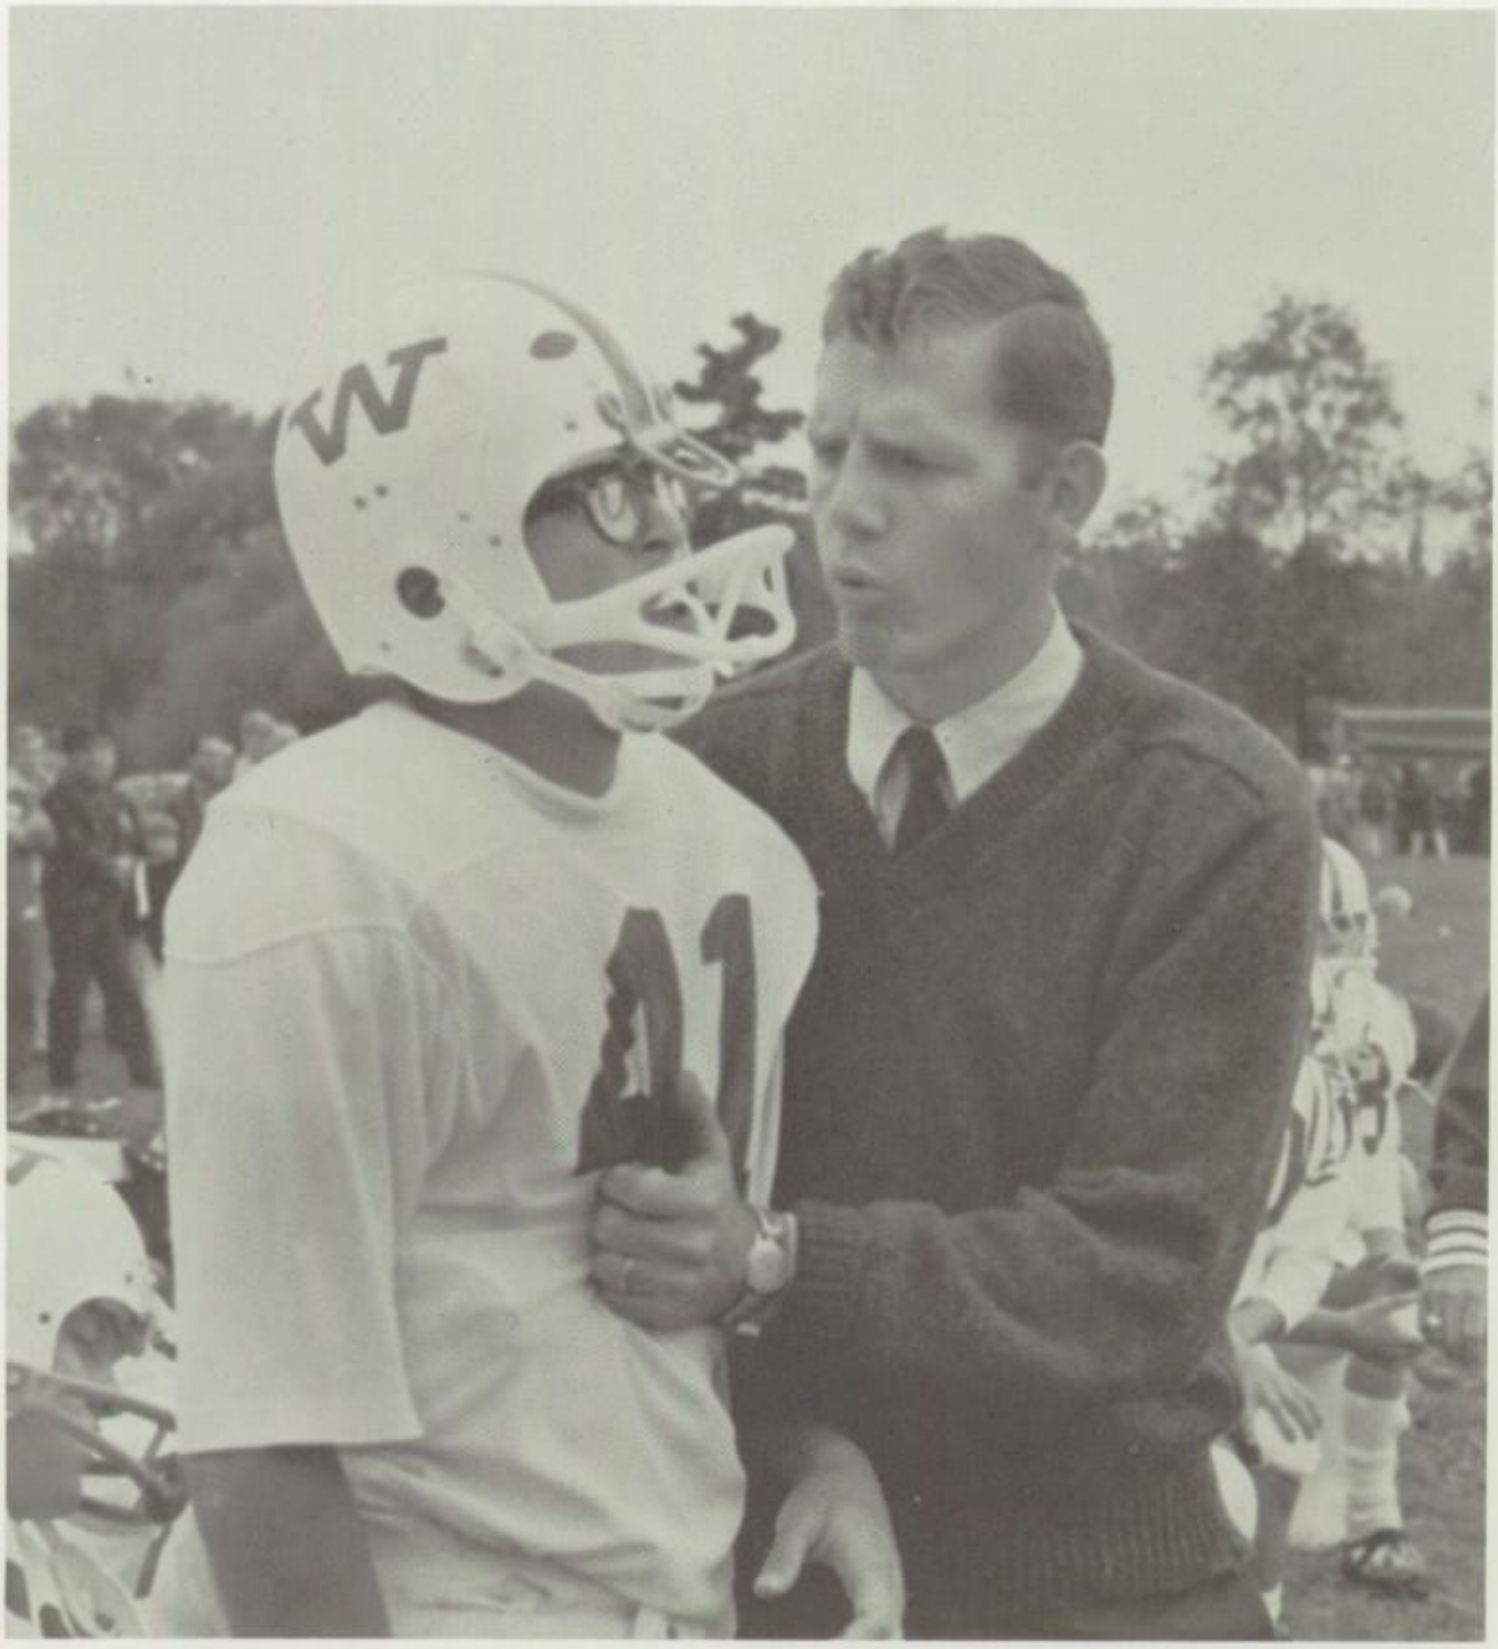
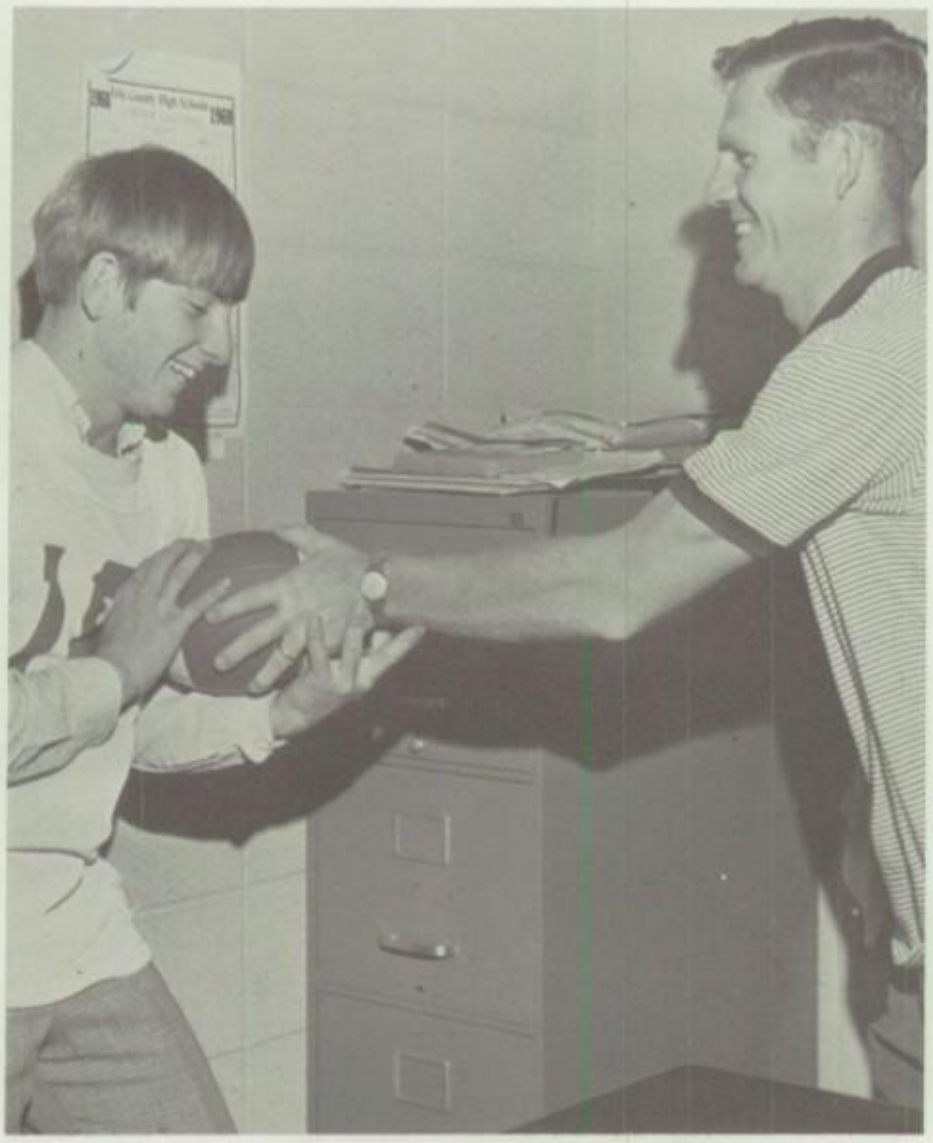
Dedication



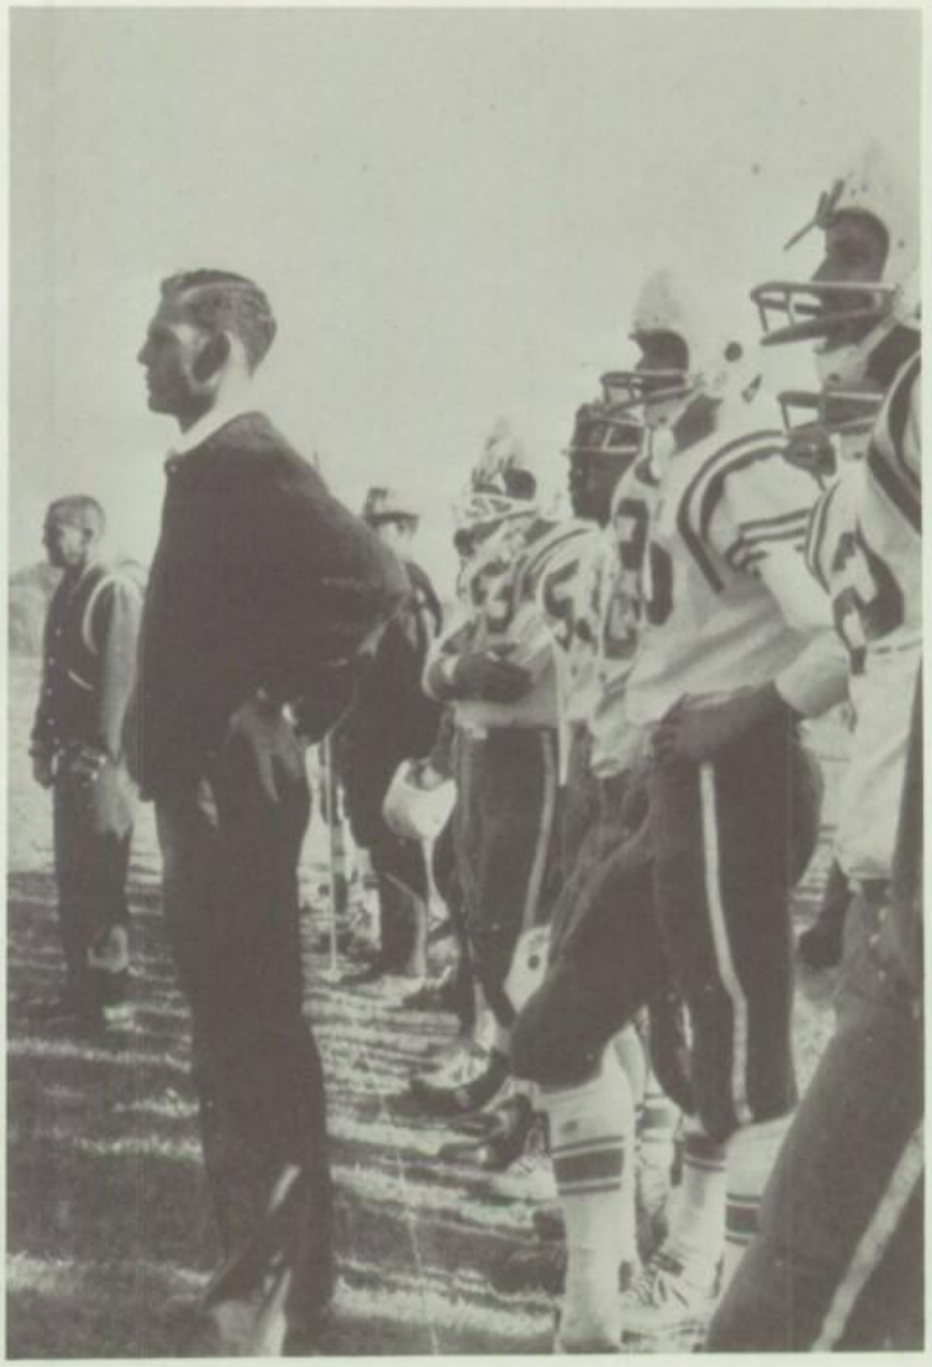
To a student a teacher is sometimes more than just an instructor. We realize that all knowledge, and many times the most important knowledge, cannot be obtained from a text book.

The senior class of 1970 would like to dedicate the Grail to a man who has become more than just a teacher to us; he has become an understanding friend who realizes that students are a part of the future. This man has taught us what it means to have school spirit, which is something that cannot be obtained from a text book. He is a man who is concerned with our physical fitness as well as our safety; and even though we do not always give him our best, he eventually will come back smiling. For many years, and in all seasons, he has given of his time to help us become better individuals. His text books consist of a motor and four wheels, a gymnasium, a football, and a wrestling mat. He is truly "A Man for All Seasons" and someone we are very proud of, Mr. Vern Hurlburt.

A Man For All Seasons



"Sock it to 'im, Coach!"



"Will they ever learn?"

"Take that picture! It's cold out here!"

Dear Seniors,

Participation is the true ingredient of School Spirit. The student body or the individual must be involved in activities if the school is to blossom forth with a common goal for support of all the activities at all times.

This road of participation has many snags. Winning or performing well seems to intensify the enthusiasm for School Spirit, while losing or performing poorly seems to dampen this enthusiasm. The real purpose of School Spirit by the viewers is to offer encouragement to the performers during periods of crisis and to offer a stable enthusiasm during times of prosperity. These types of responses are signs of development toward the common goal.

Maturity by the group or individual is measured by the consistent reaction made during these times: the spirit may be elevated or it may be depressed. Leveling out our responses to the demands of the situation provides us with dignity during these periods of elation or depression.

We congratulate the members of the Senior Class of 1970 who have developed this level of emotional reaction, and we trust that many more of you soon will develop such a response.

Charles R. Anderson

Dear Seniors,

School spirit is not easy to define; certainly it is not something that can be found in a book or studied in a class. Rather, it generates from within as a result of eagerness, enthusiasm and pride in accomplishments well-done. It could be further described as a motivating force that stimulates an individual or student body to strive for excellence.

The importance of school spirit stems from the fact that today's society rewards for excellence. This is evidenced by the status of the professional athletes and entertainers. The most successful people in every endeavor are those who strive for excellence. Therefore, if your experiences have in some way stimulated you to strive for excellence and you have accepted this as a way of life, you are then well-prepared for a most exciting and rewarding society.

William Young

Assistant to the Superintendent

Dear Graduates,

I would like to share some random thoughts with you concerning something that we call school spirit. This brings us to the pertinent and logical query, "What is school spirit?" This is somewhat akin to asking, "What is justice?" "What is love?" "What is democracy?" "What is charity?" "What is respect?"

School spirit is as difficult to define as any of the questions above. All of these things mean different things to different people.

To me, and I sincerely hope to you, that school spirit embodies all of these things.

When I see students happily engaged in school projects, cheering at sports events, talking, smiling and laughing, showing concern for their fellow students and their teachers, worrying about their grades, keeping their school and grounds neat and clean, and above all conducting themselves as ladies and gentlemen, I am sure that we have a great deal of that intangible ingredient called school spirit. This is the spirit that is so necessary to provide a solid foundation for our young people to use as a springboard into a life which they will find turbulent, changing and challenging.

Give Me a Faith

JOANNE JONES

Give me a faith that I might keep
However dark the day,
That I might know that all is well
Though weary be my way.
Give me a hope to fill my heart
To make each day worthwhile,
A way to ease a troubled mind
And teach me how to smile.

Give me an understanding soul
That knows a peace supreme,
A quietness at close of day,
A treasured worthwhile dream;
A guiding hand that I may lend
That others too might see
And find the same in peaceful bliss
That life has given me.

Give me a faith that never dies
That I might find my way,
Eagerly waiting tomorrow's dreams,
Forgetting each yesterday.
Life with its troubles, life with its cares,
These I can take I know ...
Give me a faith that shall last through all,
A faith that will live and grow.

Our Italian Ambassador

Dear everyone,

I want thank you for your help and for have been my friends in this wonderful year of my life. Is really a big experience to be a A.F.S. student in Wattsburg.

See new country and speak new languages was my important dream, and still is. Is the first time in my life (I am not old!) that I haven't miss my family in Italy, but when I come back I'll miss you very, very much. I hope I have been a good ambassador of my country, and if somebody come in Italy, I want that person come to see me.

This Magic Moment

The Queen and Her Court

"When other nights and other days have found us gone our separate ways, we will have 'This Magic Moment' to remember."

The junior class acted as host to the seniors at the Zem Zem Temple on May 24. Here, everyone danced to the music of "Simon Grace and Tuesday's Blues", with an occasional added pause at the snack table. Patty Merry was the proud queen who reigned over the evening's activities, which came to no sudden end.

Various after-prom parties lingered on into the morning hours; but as all good things must come to an end, thus did the Junior-Senior Prom of 1969 come to an end, leaving each couple with a "Magic Moment" not to be forgotten.

Crowning of the Queen, Patty Merry.

"Could you get that light out of my eyes?"

"Judy, get your hand off my knee!"

"Ah-ha! Leaving early!"

"My girdle is killing me!"

"I don't know about you guys, but this table just doesn't seem right!"

"Don't just sit there; do something!"

"Wake up, girls!"

"Funny - you don't look Italian."

GOD SPEAKS

God Himself does not speak prose.
He wastes no precious word;
Wherever beauty's way is found,
His quiet voice is heard.

Through every singing wind He calls,
In rhythn of the rain;
Wherever birds are caroling,
We hear His voice again.

On shores where cadenced tide-waves roll,
Or where still waters go,
Where leaves are whispering litanies,
His voice is soft and low.

His strength and power are in the storm;
But when all echoes cease,
In stillness of the soul He speaks
In poetry of peace.

"This is the best football team we've ever had!" Those words were Quoted from Coach Hurlburt at a pep rally one Friday afternoon. It wasn't the winningest team to come out of Wattsburg, but it was the best. Don Evan broke the school's passing record for total yardage, using Dave Ostrum and Jim Van Tassel as his favorite receivers. The defense, led by Rod Didion, Jay Vogt, Rick Prsybylski, and Chuck Peterson, never allowed more than two touchdowns in any one game. It was the hardest working team - the team with the most hustle and aggressiveness - the best team Wattsburg has ever had.

QUEEN ROBIN DEAVER

THE SENIOR FLOAT - CINDERELLA

Homecoming 1969 was a day filled with hard work and excitement. The streets of Wattsburg were crowded with brilliant Storybook floats. Although defeat was ours at the game against Fort LeBoeuf, the half-time festivities brightened the spirits of the spectators. The day was brought to a close with an AFS banquet and dance that evening.

Thanks to the tremendous effort put forth by the students, Homecoming was once again a part of the season's activities.
